Won't you stay just one night
I need you to come and save my life
Just give me something
You know it's going to be alright
Love grows Oh, it grows

Jeff Allan

I know this love is true
All I want is to spend a little time with you
I'll be your shelter through the night
Love grows, Oh it grows

Ignite your soul and let it burn so bright
Warm my heart by your firelight

And I wonder
If you could ever love again
Though the scars, they run so deep
So lay your body down
There's no time to be alone
Love grows, Oh it grows

Ignite your soul and let it burn so bright
Warm my heart by your firelight
Ignite your soul and let it burn so bright
Warm my heart by your firelight

And I wonder
If you even know my name
Baby you and I
We are one and the same
So lay your body down
We can make this last forever
Love grows, Oh it grows

Ignite your soul and let it burn so bright
Warm my heart by your firelight
Ignite your soul and let it burn so bright
Warm my heart by your firelight

And I wonder...

firelight
